

Alisia Moutry, Ph.D.

Alisia Moutry, Ph.D., is a native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She received her Bachelor of Science in Special Education with an emphasis on Learning Disabilities (K-9) from the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1990. She has earned a Master of Science in Curriculum and Instruction and a Master of Educational Leadership both from National Louis University in 1996 and 2006. October 2010 she obtained a Doctorate Degree in Leadership in Educational Administration from Capella University based in Minnesota.

Dr. Alisia Moutry is the Co-Director of the Wisconsin-Minnesota Comprehensive Center in Region 10 working for the University of Wisconsin-Madison-Wisconsin Center for Education Research. She is also the President/CEO of 4AM Consulting, LLC, established since September 2010. Blending the worlds of business and education, 4AM Consulting, LLC, provides facilitation and professional development services in the form of one on one, focus groups, and training sessions. Dr. Moutry's strong interest and areas of expertise includes: facilitating, coaching, culturally responsive practices, cycle of inquiry process, implementation science, teaming structures, multi-tiered system of support, visioning, management leadership skills, school, district & business improvement action planning, in addition to customized needs to name a few. Some past and current clients of 4AM Consulting include: Cooperative Educational Service Agency (CESA) #1, Greater Milwaukee Boys and Girls Club, Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (Wisconsin Urban Leadership Institute), St. Ann's Center for Intergenerational Care, University of Minnesota-Center for Applied Research and Educational Improvement, University of Kansas-School-wide Integrated Framework for Transformation (SWIFT) Center, Data Based Conferences-Pros in Professional Development, the Wisconsin school districts include the cities of Menomonee Falls, Mequon Thiensville, Milwaukee Public Schools, Racine Unified, Kenosha, Madison, Green Bay and most recently with the Orleans Parish School District.

Dr. Moutry's past work experiences have been the foundation of her success. She was employed by Milwaukee Public Schools (MPS) for 18 years. At MPS she held the positions of teacher, full time first year teacher mentor, and several district level positions. Her final MPS position, was the Executive Director for the Department of Diversified Community Schools responsible for 42 charter schools, 20 alternative and partnership schools. Afterwards, Dr. Moutry worked at the Cooperative Educational Service Agency (CESA) #1, as the Statewide Director of the Responsive Education for ALL Children Grant and as the local Chief of Staff for the Jamie S. Settlement Agreement. She was the Executive Director of the Milwaukee Teacher Education Center (MTEC) a statewide non-profit alternative certification and training program. Dr. Moutry was a Regional Director for the University of Kansas-School-wide Integrated Framework for Transformation (SWIFT) Center supporting and scaling up Multi-Tiered System of Supports in school districts across several regions in California and Baltimore.